

COUNCIL FOR STANDARDS IN HUMAN SERVICE EDUCATION

The Council for Standards in Human Service Education is pleased to announce that an agreement has been signed with ASCENT Management, LLC, an association management organization, to assist with the day-to-day operations of the Council including: membership services, program accreditation/reaccreditation records, and accounting/financial functions. The Council will now be able to enhance services to our member and accredited programs with the establishment of a business front (office address, phone and email). Please note this information for future use. In addition, it is our expectation that ASCENT Management, LLC will become an integral part of Council operations.

ASCENT Management, LLC specializes in volunteer-governed organizations and caters to a number of different sectors including education, government institutes/agencies, professional societies and trade associations. Besides full-service association management, ASCENT Management provides project-specific services for associations or businesses that need special expertise for a project.

The Council welcomes ASCENT Management, LLC to our work in assuring the quality, consistency and relevance of human service education programs!
